

The Round Table Pizza® International Area License Acquisition Steps

- 1) Complete our Candidate Information Form (CIF) and the Confidentiality Agreement (CA)
- 2) Receive our detailed business concept information and our License terms
- 3) Send us your brand and business model questions
- 4) Provide us with your company financials and management CVs
- 5) Create a presentation of your company and country with our assistance
- 6) Attend Discovery Day meetings at our headquarters to meet our senior executives, see our units and discuss the opportunity for your country
- 7) Sign a Letter Of Intent and make a deposit towards the initial License Fee
- 8) We visit your country to see your operations and the local market
- 9) Sign the License Agreement and pay the remaining initial License Fee
- 10) Start with your management training at our headquarters in the US
- 11) Develop your specific menu items with our chefs and Mattson
- 12) We train your full team in your country and provide support during the Pre Opening, Grand Opening and Post Opening
- 13) Open the first Round Table Pizza® in your country

Note that this entire process is estimated to take about 6 months from the time of first contact
As Round Table Pizza® receives many international inquiries, it is important that candidates follow these steps and this timeline to be considered for a Round Table Pizza® area license
